How best can we raise our children to be well adjusted adults

Every parent wants their children to turn into young men and women who are sincere, generous and ready to meet the challenges of the world.

This seminar is focused on sharpening your parenting know-how with practical tools to help your kids grow well into their teenage and adult lives.

We are parenting in a confusing and uncertain world. For our kids to remain true to their convictions, they need strength of character and habits of both the head and the heart. It is up to us to create this environment where our children can practice resilience and discover what it means to live life to the fullest.

Parents will walk away from this seminar with clear actionable goals that will have a profound impact on the quality of their family life and the happiness of their children.
