

In affiliation with FEA

Family Education Australia (FEA), a non-profit incorporated association established in 1986, is a member of the International Federation for Family Development (IFFD), which holds consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations (ECOSOC). IFFD works in 63 countries, in five continents, helping parents in their role as the primary educators of their children.

The presenting couple

Maurice and Jane Watson were part of a team that established Family Education Australia in 1986. Since that time, they have been running a variety of parenting courses in Australia and New Zealand. They work with a team of equally committed couples who are passionate about helping parents improve their parenting skills, the basis of which is a strong marriage. The first Marriage Enrichment Weekend was held in 2008 and has since been held in Sydney, Melbourne, and Auckland. Maurice is an accountant, Jane is a physiotherapist, both run their own businesses, and at the same time managing a large family. They have been married for 33 years.
